

You are Remembered

A Whole Year on and a Moment to Reflect.

I just simply wanted to say that I am thinking of each and every member of our Well community today, whatever emotions this day may be unearthing for you.

I am so very sorry for those who have lost a dear one during this time, either through Covid or something else that prevented you being there in the way you might have liked to have been. For the heartache of separation from those you love most, the new beginnings put on hold and the endings you did not wish to happen in the way they did.

I also want to thank everyone for your incredible support in birthing new life at The Well - for your courage, tenacity and obedience in seeing the vision through to this point. A wise man said to me only this morning:

"it feels like we are reaching the finishing line, carried by our Father, but I'm realising this is only the beginning".

I hope and pray for us all that this next year will be truly hopeful, a time of healing and New Beginnings both for us as individuals and as a Community.

Romans 8 perfectly sums up the stamina and steadfastness of the yellow heart:

"I'm absolutely convinced that nothing—nothing living or dead, angelic or demonic, today or tomorrow, high or low, thinkable or unthinkable—absolutely nothing can get between us and God's love".

We are still standing! So thank you so much and be blessed.
